

The Advocates for Indigenous California Language Survival

Seeds of Language Mini-Grant Application

The Advocates for Indigenous California Language Survival (AICLS) are sponsoring a mini-grant program to assist California Natives who are working to revitalize their languages through the purchase of recording equipment, attendance at language conferences and workshops, conducting research, or other possible language-related projects.

A small number of grants ranging from $100 to $500, depending upon need, will be given throughout the year. If you are interested in applying for this program, please complete the application form and mail to the address listed below. You will be notified when your request has arrived and a decision will be made within 30 days of receipt of the completed application*. Email Marina for deadline marina@aicls.org

Name _____
Tribe/Language _____
Mailing Address _____
City/State/Zip Code _____
Phone _____ Other Phone _____
Email Address _____
Amount of Request $ _____
Brief description of Project _____ _____ _____
Cost of equipment/Conference/Other $ _____ (attach example, estimate, invoice)

*Please attach an explanation describing your experience, your activities relating to language preservation and how you would like to further your knowledge through this project.

Return the completed application to:
Advocates for Indigenous California Language Survival (AICLS) c/o PO Box 1688, Topanga, CA 90290-1688 or contact Marina Drummer (707) 486-6805, marina@aicls.org or Richard Bugbee at hunwut@aol.com.